The Nanticoke Historical Society will hold a Celebrate Nanticoke History Day on Saturday, October 23, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the society offices in the Samantha Mill House, 495 East Main Street. To add to the celebration, present and past residents are asked to bring to our offices any Nanticoke memorabilia stored in their homes such as photos, letters, school records, etc. to be scanned and returned to the owner that day. Items that are handed down through generations, no matter how unimportant they may seem add to the rich history of the city and its residents. For more information call 570-258-1367.

Mark your calendars for October 23!
State Rep. Gerald Mullery is holding a second free document shredding event this year. They will be at Crestwood High School in Mountain Top. Safely dispose of your old documents and keep your personal information safe.

The City of Nanticoke's 2022 Budget will be up for public inspection at 9:00 am on Friday, October 29, 2021 in the Council Chambers at 15 E. Ridge Street, Nanticoke. The 2022 Budget Hearing will be held on Wednesday, November 17, 2021 at 6:30 pm. (Prior to the Council Meeting)
